

Procurement Analysis

This one-page dashboard provides a comprehensive overview of procurement activities, presenting key metrics such as the total invoiced amount (in monetary terms) and corresponding quantities (in tons), as well as the total purchased amount and quantities over time (by month and year). Additionally, it includes detailed insights into individual purchases, with information on purchase orders, materials, and other procurement-related inquiries, ensuring a complete and streamlined view of the procurement process.

